ndent battalion and company will establish own camp or quarter guard, so as effectually preserve good order and arrest all insubordion that might arise within his responsand and neighborhood.

> THEO. TALBOT Assistant Adjutant General.

THE INTERIOR DEPARTMENT FLAG.-The position of the staff from which the Interior Depart-ment flag is to be suspended, has been changed from the south front of the Patent Office Building to the east front of the Interior Department proper, in order to secure a more substantial basis. The ceremony of unfurling the stars and stripes will take place at twelve o'clock, M., precisely. In addition to the delightful music from the Rhode Island band, various members of the regiment from that State will unite in singing several of our patriotic choruses. The President of the United States is expected to be present,

Going into Camp .- The seventh regiment have thus far been prevented from going into camp, owing to the non-arrival of their camp equipage. It is expected to arrive in a day or two, however, and they will then probably encamp on Georgetown Heights.

Buildings are being erected on the public square, bounded by Thirteenth and Fourteenth, and fand & streets, for the accommodation of t twelfth regiment, who will take up their uniters there on Saturday.

TER CAPITOL POLICE .- Captain Nathan Darling has been appointed chief of the Capitol police. Capt. D. is well qualified for this posi-tion, and we have no doubt but that he will give universal satisfaction.

DRIVER OUT OF VIRGINIA .- Yesterday the following persons servived in this city from Virginia, which State they were ordered to leave on account of being Union men: G. R. Thayer, Joseph M. Savage, W. H. Baker, Abner Thayer, Wildman Savage, Thomas O. Colden, Edward Duvall, J. W. Mullen, Joseph Gones, and George C. Dowden. The most of these persons are on the west. den. The most of these persons are on the way to Obio and Penasylvania. Some of them were arrested at Centreville, and taken to Fairfax Court louse, where they were tried and threatened with anging, but were released. The two last named e from Occoquan, and were ordered to leave to the Southern Confederacy. We had hoped that a stop had been put to these outrages, but we are sorry that such is not the case.

ENGINE POS TES ANNAPOLIS RAILROAD. -- FOUR ogines from the Pennsylvania railroad, and two om the Reading road, were taken to Annapolis esterday, on board the steamer Maryland, from yesterday, on board the steamer Maryland, from Philadelphia. A large number of cars will also be sent there immediately, and we may reason-ably expect that the troops will arrive by this route much more rapidly hereafter than they THEATRE.—The "Maid of Croissey" went off with fine effect last night, as did also "Mr. and Mrs. White," which kept the audience in a confinual roar. To-night we are to have Payne's excellent comedy of "Charles the Second," and the ever-popular "Rough Diamond"—a first-rate bill, and one sure to draw a crowded house.

THAT PIG .- A few nights since, as two of the regiments were at Annapolis Junction on their way here, a mischievous soldier, who was placed on guard some distance from the main body, as he was walking his rounds, shot a pig. A member of the other regiment, hearing the report, hastened to the spot, and demanded that the pig should be divided, or be would inform his officers. The be divided, or he would inform his order to the pig was then divided, and served up to the friends of each party. The officers, however, observing the bones, a on found out the guilty party; and on questioning him, he replied, that he did it in obedience to the orders he had received, "not to let any one pass, without the countersign." He saw the pig coming towards him, and challenged it; but receiving no answer, he charged bayonet on it, and the pig still persisting, he shot it. The officers laughed heartily at the explanation, and sent him to find the case of an angle of the pig, which he states was the hardest job he ever performed.

CHARGE OF STRALING .- One of the soldiers now city, named W. H. Tuft, was arrested on Tuesday night, on the charge of stealing a pocket-book containing about twelve dollars. The offender is a young man very respectably connected, and withal wealthy. The only reason that can be assigned for the theft is that he was intoxicated. The officers and members of his company feel deeply for the occurrence. He was committed to appear at court.

ARRESTED .- James Welsh, charged in connection with Samuel Godfrey, who has already been arrested for an assault on Washington Adams, coffored, with a bayonet, was taken from the reers of the company to which he belonged to office of Justice Clark by whom he ice of Justice Clark, by whom he was com

The horse was stopped at prner of Fourteenth street by a soldier.

MILITARY PARADES .- Yesterday, several of the ompanies of this city with the regiments now tationed here were out on parade. The Young Guard, of Georgetown, Captain

Rodier, were out with martial music, making quite a handsome appearance in their gay Zouive uniform, red pantaloons and blue and caps. They marched to the Patent Office where they were invited into the quarters of the Rhode Island regiment and reviewed by Governor Sprague and Colonel Burnside of the regi-

The fith Massachusetts regiment, Colonel Lawrence, in large numbers marched to Lafay sette Square, where they were inspected by Major Irvin McDowell, Assistant Adjutant General, and sworn into the service of the United States by General George C. Thomas, of the District militia. As they marched up the avenue they presented one of the finest military displays that we ever beheld, and their correct marching and bearing elicited the approbation of the crowds

The Washington Light Infantry, Capt. Lemuel Towers, were out yesterday on their twenty-sixth May day parade. They presented their usual fine appearance, and paraded one hufdred and practiced at the target.

Company B, Union regiment, Captain James Kelly, accompanied by martial music, paraded in the morning and proceeded to the outskirts, where they drilled for some time. They are out on drill nearly every morning, and are making rapid improvement.

The Zouave Company, Captain J. T. Powell, paraded yesterday morning in large numbers in overcoats, making quite a creditable appearance. They expect to parade in full Zouave uniform next week.

The Rhode Island regiment, Colonel Burnside, parade every afternion in front of the Patent Office, attracting a large crowd of spectators. Office, attracting a large crowd of speciators. Last evening, one of the companies attached to this regiment marched out in white linen coats, presenting a somewhat novel but neat appearance. To-day the whole regiment will be present at the raising of the flag on the Interior Department by the Hon. C. B. Smith, Secretary of the Interior. he Interior.

posed principally of recruits, are constantly drill-ing in the square and on the adjacent streets. The men are making themselves quite proficient in the use of arms.

THE SIXTY-NINTH NOT HERE YET .- Up to the hour of going to press, (2 o'clock A.M., the six-ty-ninth regiment from New York had not ar-rived. They are still on the road between this city and Annapolis, and are hourly expected here. They have made themselves very popular wherever they have been, and are treated with uniform kindness by the people everywhere along the route.

APPOINTMENTS IN THE WASHINGTON NAVY YARD.—The Secretary of the Navy has directed the following appointments in the Washington Navy Yard to be made, viz: M. H. Bland, Master Founder; Henry Porrest, Master Joiner; John H. Peake, Master Painter; James Brown, Master Blacksmith; W. E. Hutchinson, Master Plumber; Mathew McNally, Superintendent Copper Rolling Mill; B. McHenry, Master Pattern maker; and J. N. Atchinson, George Crandle, A. B. Lucas, and John Batham, to be Watchmen.

The ladies engaged in the laudable purpose of collecting lint, bandages, &c., for the troops, acknowledge the receipt of quite a large supply of these materials, but would be thankful for any further contributions. Their depository is at No. 427 Pennsylvania avenue, where packages may be left. They request that the decomposition may be left. They request that the donors mark their names plainly on the packages.

We are desired by our agents to call the attenion of delinquent subscribers to the obligation they would confer upon them by a prompt set-tlement of their little accounts. The failure to lo so sometimes causes considerable embarrassment in their own ability promptly to meet their

MUSIC IN THE PRESIDENT'S GROUNDS .- The an nouncement that the famous Seventh Regiment band would perform in the President's grounds yesterday afternoon, drew together a very large crowd of ladies and gentlemen, notwithstanding the unpropitious state of the weather. Upon the President's making his appearance on the porti-co of the White House, he was greeted with the most enthusiastic applause from the vast throng present; in response to which, the Presiden made a few remarks, in which he congratulated them upon the prospects of a happy termination of the present difficulties, but assuring them that the people were more powerful in that than he

GETTING ON THE STRONG SIDE.—Yesterday GOOD Boarding, with or without rooms, can morning, our citizens were agreeably surprised to see a magnificent American flag stretched across one of our principal business streets. On inquiry, we learned that the firm who "flung the banner to the breeze" have lately been of th secession order, but recently came over on the side of the Union, and took this method of publishing the fact to the public.

ARREST ON SUSPICION .- Officer J. F. King ar rested a man named William Kelly, on Tuesday ight, on suspicion of having stolen a gold watch from Dr. Frazier. Several persons have hereto-fore been arrested on the same charge. Justice Donn committed Kelly to jail for a further ex-

LEAVE OF ABSENCE GRANTED.—Colonel Rufus King, the newly appointed United States Minis-ter to Rome, has been granted by the State De-pariment three months leave of absence, to enable him to command the regiment of volunteers to be farnished by Wisconsin. A similar leave has been granted to Carl Schurz, United States minister to Spain, who proposes to raise a regiment of cavalry.

PARADE AND TARGET FIRING .- Yesterday afternoon, Company A, Union Regiment, Captain Ed-ward C. Carrington, Lieutenants Curtis and Ward numbering over ninety men, accompanied by the fine band of the Rhode Island logiment, paraded through our principal streets presenting their usual soldierly appearance. They afterwards proceeded to the Seventh street Park, where they had a target shooting. Private Benjamin Scriv-ener took off the first prize, an elegant silver cup; and James Cannon the second, a beautiful cup; and Ja gold pencil.

Nor IMPLICATED. - We learn that the charge against Mr. William Thompson, late of the Ord-nance department, of having been a party to the treachery of filling bombs with send, has been carefully investigated by the officers in charge and that nothing whatever has been discovered tending to criminate him.

INSULTING CITIZENS.—Theodore Ligman and Charles Sanders, two soldiers who were confided by their commanding officer a day or two since for insulting ladies on the street, were arrested last night on the charge of driving the inmates from a dwelling house, and taking possession of the premises. When at the guard-house, they the premises. When at the guard-house, they abused the officers in an outrageous manner, one of them throwing a brick at guardsman King. In default of bail, they were committed to appear at court by Justice Clark.

The Stars and Stripes Floating over the Custom-House and Post Office in Baltimore.

re, May 1 .- At noon to-day, the Star-Spangled Banner was raised with great demon-strations of enthusiasm, from the Post Office and strations of enthusiasm, from the Post Office and Custom-House, by order of the newly-appointed officials. A large crowd assembled in front of the Custom House to witness the flag-raising. A new flag-staff was erected over the portice, and at precisely quarter to twelve, Captain Frazier, a veteran sea captain of Fell's Point, who was assigned the honor, from up the flag, which, as it spread to the breeze, was greeted with tremendous applause, waving of hats, and cheers for the Union and the old flag. The crowd then joined in singing the Star-Spangled Banner.
